Fandango Side Chair 73-11/1

Piaval

Calibrated proportions and contemporary spirit are the common denominator of Fandango collection. The simplicity of the shapes, rigorously linear and solid, is enriched by the quality of the materials and by the care for every detail. The result is a calibrated collection, characterized by flexibility and compositional versatility, which is perfectly placed in any contract environment. A distinctive hallmark shared throughout the collection is the high quality of the workings and materials. The wide range of upholstery and shades enhance the versatility of the collection. Solid wood, a common thread of Piaval's entire production, emerges from the exposed feet and forms the solid internal structure of every Fandango furniture.
