

Kokoro Laptop Tables

Manerba

Modularity, freedom and welcome are the inspiring basics of Kokoro, the system of sofas, dividing partitions and tables designed by Federica Biasi. It is composed at will creating new spaces within wider environments, shift- ing from a co-working logic to a co-living dimension. Kokoro – means “heart” in Japanese, it also means “essence” “right spirit”, “cornerstone”. Kokoro has many meanings, as does the homonymous modular system of seats, dividing panels, low tables and bar tables designed for Manerba. The Kokoro coffee tables come in low tables in various heights as well as a high bar table, all with laminate top in selected colours and rounded corners; there is the opportunity of integrating the electrical wiring as in the laptop table version.
